Re: Changes to Self-Help Center for COVID-19

If you are sick do not come for any appointment you may have with the Court instead please call 209-754-1443

Effective Monday, June 29, 2020, the Court will be opening the Self-Help Center.

All person are required to wear a face covering when in the courthouse. Anyone who is unable to wear a face covering can request an accommodation by submitting a Request for Accommodation form (MC-410) to the Court's ADA Coordinator. This must be submitted at least 5 days prior to when the accommodation is needed. More information about the ADA procedure is located at www.calaveras.courts.ca.gov/info.ada.

The amount of people allowed in the Self-Help Center will be limited to allow for social distancing. You can bring one support person when using the center. However, for the safety of your children and court staff, please do not bring children.

Mediations will resume to in person. The Court has made adjustments for social distancing.

The Judicial Council of California also provides a wealth of online self-help information and resources via The California Courts Self-Help Center. To access this online center visit <https://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.htm>.
