Application Deadline: September 30, 2023, at 4:00p.m.

Under general supervision, provides a wide variety of general clerical support for the courts and does other related work as required.

Court Clerk I

This is the training and entry-level position of the Court Clerk series. Under close supervision, incumbents are trained to process applicable legal forms and documents; collect, distribute, and balance fees and deposits of funds; and learn the necessary and appropriate legal terminology and procedures in support of one or more of the assigned operational functions of the Court (traffic, jury, appeals, civil, family law, probate, small claims, juvenile, criminal and Self-Help). Incumbents perform a wide variety of detailed orientated clerical work requiring the ability to choose from a limited number of alternatives in solving routine problems in a training/entry-level capacity. As tasks are learned, direct supervision decreases and the incumbent is expected to perform at the top of the entry level, eventually rotating through and demonstrating proficiency in a variety of assignments within an assigned unit, or in the Self-Help Center. This class is distinguished from the next higher class of Court Clerk II in that incumbents in the latter class routinely perform clerical duties in support of one or more operational functions requiring the exercise of initiative and judgment significantly beyond that of the entry level and may be in training to perform courtroom duties.

Court Clerk II

This is the journey-level position of the series. Incumbents under varying levels of supervision perform a wide range of clerical and case processing duties and may be in training to perform courtroom duties. Incumbents perform moderate to difficult clerical work in support of one or more operational functions, requiring the application of policies and procedures and the use of legal rules and codes and often assisting the public in stressful situations referring them to sources of information such as policies, procedures, rules and codes. Incumbents are assigned specific areas of responsibility and provide input to the unit or Self-Help Center on how their work processes can be improved to enhance efficiency, accuracy, and customer service. This class is distinguished from the next higher class of Court Clerk III in that incumbents assigned to the III level are experienced in specialized complex case processing, and where assigned to the courtroom, are able to function independently.

Court Clerk III

This classification is the advanced journey-level position in the court clerk series. Incumbents, under limited supervision, perform in support of several operational functions, advanced case processing and courtroom support duties of a specialized and complex nature and shall provide training to subordinate staff. Assigned individuals have demonstrated the ability to work independently of daily supervision and receive minimal supervision from supervising staff. Incumbents are expected to serve as role models, modeling the mission and values of the court; perform work requiring superior problem-solving skills; use significant independent judgment in the interpretation and application of rules, procedures, and policies; and provide significant input to the unit or team on how their work processes can be improved to enhance efficiency, accuracy, and customer service.
