Calaveras County Superior Court
Swearing in of Bradley W. Sullivan

June 6, 2023

On June 5, 2023, Bradley W. Sullivan, of Lodi, California, was sworn as the Calaveras Superior Court Commissioner.

Commissioner Bradley W. Sullivan had been in private practice representing parties in general civil, business, family law, general land use planning, and entitlement matters, and has over 40 years of legal experience.

Commissioner Sullivan earned his Bachelor of Science Juris Doctor degrees from Santa Clara University. Commissioner Sullivan has been a member of various advisory boards and boards of directors and has published several articles and presented at a number of public forums. Over the years, Commissioner Sullivan has volunteered his time to serve on pro bono paternity panels, small claims, settlement conference judge pro tem, and as a mediator/special master.

Commissioner Sullivan grew up in Murphys where he graduated from the old Murphys School and Bret Harte High School. His father, Jerry Sullivan, was the Administrator of both Bret Harte Hospital in Murphys and Mark Twain Hospital in San Andreas. Commissioner Sullivan's mother, Jill Sullivan, retired from nursing formerly employed as an ER nurse at Mark Twain Hospital and also the Calaveras County Public Health Nurse.

Commissioner Sullivan has been assigned to Department 4 where he will hear a variety of matters including misdemeanor driving under the influence and 14601.2 infraction assignments, unlawful detainers, family law settlement conferences, civil and family law case management, Child Support cases, and SARB (School Attendance Review Board) cases.
